NETWORKS & ORGANIZATIONS

COUNCIL ON LITIGATION MANAGEMENT

The Council is a nonpartisan alliance of corporations, insurance companies, law firms and service providers committed to furthering the highest standards of litigation management. We are an inclusive and collaborative organization seeking to further the practice of Litigation Management through educational programs, fostering communication and collaboration, and providing resources to the defense industry.

The Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel - FDCC

The Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (FDCC), composed of recognized leaders in the legal community who have achieved professional distinction, is dedicated to promoting knowledge, fellowship, and professionalism of its members as they pursue the course of a balanced judicial system and represent those in need of a defense in civil lawsuits.

The FDCC is an international organization founded in 1936 to further the principles of knowledge, justice & fellowship. The Federation has approximately 1300 members from the United States, Puerto Rico, Australia, Canada, Mexico, Europe, the Middle East, Asia and South America. Its members include experienced attorneys in private practice who specialize in the defense of civil litigation, corporate counsel, risk managers and insurance claim executives. Membership is by invitation only following an extensive peer review selection process.

The FDCC values and is committed to promoting diversity within the organization's membership, environment, and culture. The FDCC seeks to foster understanding, acceptance, and respect among all people. The FDCC recognizes that the inclusion of people from diverse backgrounds enriches us personally, strengthens our organization, and enhances the quality and talent within the legal profession.

California-Asia Business Council

California-Asia Business Council (Cal-Asia) is one of California's leading private-sector, non-profit, international business-promotion associations. Their mission is to help California companies of all sizes develop or expand their commercial ties with the economies of Southeast Asia and China. The Council's programs in California have featured heads of state from Malaysia and the Philippines, Vietnam's Deputy Prime Minister, Chinese and other Asian trade and economic ministers, ambassadors of the United States and Asian countries, and senior business leaders from both sides of the Pacific. The council's vigorous program schedule, its initiatives focused on sustainable development in Asia and China's financial sector, and the periodic dissemination of key business highlights has earned two coveted awards from the US Department of Commerce.

California Women Lawyers

California Women Lawyers promotes the advancement of women in the legal profession and is an active advocate for the concerns of women in society. Since 1974, CWL has represented the interests of more than 30,000 women in all facets of the legal profession, influencing lawyers, educators, students and judges. CWL has consistently provided a high level of support and commitment to their individual career goals, and to the collective goals of women in law and society. As the only statewide bar association for women in California, California Women Lawyers maintains a primary focus on advancing women in the legal profession.

Defense Research Institute

DRI is the largest international membership organization of attorneys defending the interests of business and individuals in civil litigation. DRI is committed to: enhancing the skills, effectiveness, and professionalism of defense lawyers, anticipating and addressing issues germane to defense lawyers and the civil justice system, promoting appreciation of the role of the defense lawyer, and improving the civil justice system and preserving the civil jury.

Professional Liability Underwriting Society

The Professional Liability Underwriting Society (PLUS) was founded in 1986 by industry professionals who recognized the need for a forum for individuals involved in the field of professional liability. The Society is a non-profit organization with membership open to persons interested in the promotion and development of the professional liability industry.

Queen's Bench

Queen's Bench Bar Association of the San Francisco Bay Area was formed in 1921. Queen's Bench seeks to advance the interests of women in law and society, and plays an integral part in furthering the progress of women in the legal profession. Queen's Bench is a non-profit voluntary membership organization made up of attorneys, judges and law students. Queen's Bench gains inspiration from our long and proud tradition of women lawyers standing up for equal rights and equal opportunity, and working together.

California Minority Counsel Program

The California Minority Counsel Program's mission is to promote diversity among the state's attorney population, and thereby advance a more inclusive and just legal profession. As the state grows increasingly more diverse, it is imperative to have lawyers of different backgrounds to understand and serve the needs of these incredibly diverse communities and ensure a more inclusive legal profession.

Minority Corporate Counsel Association

The Minority Corporate Counsel Association (MCCA) was founded in 1997 to advocate for the expanded hiring, retention, and promotion of minority attorneys in corporate law departments and the law firms that serve them. MCCA accomplishes its mission through the collection and dissemination of information about diversity in the legal profession.
